

LUIS A. DUARTE

PARNTER

BIOGRAPHY

Luis Duarte is a partner of Imaginable Futures and oversees our work across Latin America.

Luis is an entrepreneur who has started a number of companies and worked across both corporate and public sectors. Luis served as chief philanthropy officer of ZOMALAB, the family office of Ben and Lucy Ana Walton, and as president of the ZOMA Foundation, where he led efforts to address challenging social issues in Colorado and Chile. Luis formerly worked as the investment director at Gary Community Investments, where he led the areas of innovation and impact investing.

Luis has held board seats or observer roles with B Lab, Gary Community Investments, Accion, Colorado Impact Fund, Aravaipa Ventures, Barton Institute for Philanthropy and Social Enterprise, Goldman Sachs Urban Investment Fund and WeeSchool. He is also a Colorado Governors Fellow, as well as an Unreasonable Institute Fellow.

Luis received a Master of Business Administration from Babson College and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Tec de Monterrey. He graduated cum laude at both schools.

Luis lives in Denver with his wife, Vanessa, and their two sons, Mauricio and Luis Jr. He enjoys hiking with his family, kayaking, traveling and playing guitar.

CONNECT WITH LUIS

linkedin.com/in/luisduarte01

@Luisdh

